1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013 (POPIA), is a data protection privacy law, which as its main function and objective, regulates and controls the processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party.
- 1.2 The Company, in its capacity as a Responsible Party, for the purposes of carrying out its business and related objectives, does and will from time to time, process Personal Information belonging to a number of persons, including legal entities and individuals, who are referred to as Data Subjects under the Data Processing Laws, including POPIA.
- 1.3 The Company is obligated to comply with the Data Processing Laws, including POPIA and the Data Protection conditions housed under POPIA with respect to the processing of all and any Personal Information pertaining to all and any Data Subjects.
- 1.4 The Company may ask third parties to process certain Personal Information, obtained from its Data Subjects, on its behalf.
- 1.5 In terms of sections 20, 21 and section 72 of POPIA, where the Company as a Responsible Party provides another with Personal Information for processing, then the Company has a duty to ensure that it concludes a written agreement or contract with the recipient of the Personal Information in terms of which the Recipient contractually undertakes to:
 - 1.5.1 only process or use Personal Information which has been provided to it by the Responsible Party for processing, in accordance with the mandate or instruction issued to it by the Responsible Party;
 - 1.5.2 treat such Personal Information as confidential;
 - 1.5.3 not disclose the Personal Information to any other, unless required by law or in the course of the proper performance of its duties;
 - 1.5.4 establish and maintain adequate safeguards and security measures in respect of the information which it is processing on behalf of the Responsible Party, in this case being the Company, which are designed to keep that Personal Information safe and secure from misuse, abuse and/or unauthorised use or access.
- 1.6 The Company is desirous of providing Personal Information to a third party (hereinafter referred to as the "Recipient") and in order to ensure that the Personal Information is correctly processed in a manner that does not impinge on the Data Subject's rights under POPIA, the Recipient of the Personal Information undertakes to comply with the terms and conditions set out under this Cross Border Agreement / Addendum.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1.15 "Responsible Party" shall have the meaning given to it in any Data Protection Legislation;

2.2 Capitalised terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement / Addendum shall bear the meanings given to them in the Agreement / Addendum. Reference to a 'clause' is to a clause in the Agreement / Addendum, unless otherwise stated or implied from the context in which it appears.

2.3 If there is a conflict between any provision in this Agreement / Addendum and any other other agreements that may be in place as between the parties, then, in so far as the conflict concerns the processing of Personal Information, the provision appearing in this Agreement / Addendum shall prevail.

2.4 For purposes of interpretation, in the case of the Agreement / Addendum, the terms set out hereunder shall at all times be read together with the terms housed under the other agreements that may be in place as between the parties, which documents shall constitute one agreement. Except for the additions contemplated in this Agreement / Addendum all the provisions of the terms housed under the other agreements that may be in place as between the parties, remain unchanged and are with effect from the time that the Recipient is asked to process Personal Information on behalf of the Company and the provisions of the Agreement / Addendum shall apply mutatis mutandis to all the other agreements that may be in place as between the parties for the duration of the Agreement / Addendum.

- 2.5 No agreement varying, adding to, deleting from or consensually cancelling this Agreement / Addendum shall be effective unless reduced to writing and signed by or on behalf of the Parties.

3. MANDATE TO PROCESS

The Company hereby provides the Recipient with certain Personal Information, to process as described under "Annexure C".

4. OBLIGATIONS OF THE RECIPIENT

4.1 The Recipient expressly warrants and undertakes that it will:

- 4.1.1 process the Personal Information strictly as described under "Annexure C" and any specific instructions provided to it by the Company from time to time;
- 4.1.2 not use the Personal Information for any other purpose, save for the purpose of processing the Personal Information as per the Agreement / Addendum;
- 4.1.3 treat the Personal Information as confidential and only disclose, transfer and/or hand over the Personal Information to those person(s) who are employed by it, and who need to process the Personal Information in accordance with the mandate to process as an Recipient and/or in terms of the Agreement / Addendum under strict undertakings of confidentiality;
- 4.1.4 in addition to the provisions of clause 4.1.3, treat the Personal Information as confidential and only disclose, transfer and handover the Personal Information to third parties where under any specific instructions as issued by the Company in writing or where required by law. The disclosure, transfer or handover of Personal Information should only be done after the Recipient has provided the Company with adequate warning of this requirement and the related details thereof. Details provided to the Company should include the identity of the person or legal entity who is to receive the Personal Information, the reason for the disclosure and confirmation that the person or legal entity to whom the Personal Information is to be disclosed to, has signed the POPIA onward transmission notice attached hereto marked "Annexure A";
- 4.1.5 ensure that it has and will continue to have in place, appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect and safeguard the Personal Information against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access. This should include Industry Best Practices that provide a level of security appropriate to the risk represented by the processing and the nature of the Personal Information to be protected. The safeguards must comply with the requirements set out under POPIA and be in line with the requirements described under the attached "Annexure B";

- 4.1.6 implement such measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk involved, including as appropriate: the pseudonymisation and encryption of Personal Information; the ability to ensure the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of processing systems and services; the ability to restore the availability and access to Personal Information in a timely manner in the event of a physical or technical incident; and a process for regularly testing, assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of security measures.
- 4.1.7 process the Personal Information strictly in accordance with POPIA and the POPIA processing conditions and any other Data Privacy Laws that may be in place in the Country or area where the Recipient is located and where it is using the Personal Information, provided that the POPIA provisions at all times will take precedence;
- 4.1.8 not use the Personal Information for any direct marketing or advertising, research or statistical purposes, unless expressly authorised to do as per its mandate and when conducting such activity ensure that this is done strictly in compliance with the requirements of POPIA and its regulations especially those applicable to direct marketing detailed under section 69;
- 4.1.9 where processing the Personal Information as an Operator, not treat the Personal Information as its own, it expressly acknowledging that it has been tasked with processing the Personal Information in its capacity as the Company's Operator and agent, and that ownership of all the records housing the Personal Information and any records comprising such Personal Information pertaining to the Data Subject, will always remain with the Company;
- 4.1.10 not sell, alienate or otherwise part with the Personal Information or any of the records housing the Personal Information, save with the Company's prior written consent and which is required in order for it to comply with its mandate;
- 4.1.11 where it has to pass the Personal Information to a sub-Recipient, or sub-Operator, as the case may be, as per its mandate or in terms of the Agreement / Addendum, ensure that such party concludes a "sub-Recipient or sub-Operator Agreement" with it and the Company, which compels the third party receiving the Personal Information to respect and maintain the confidentiality and security of the Personal Information, which sub-Recipient or sub-Operator Agreement will house the same terms and conditions as contained in this Agreement / Addendum, and which shall be concluded before the Personal Information is transferred to the sub-Recipient or sub-Operator.
- 4.1.12 ensure that any person acting under the authority of the Recipient, including any employee or sub-Recipient, shall be obligated to process the Personal Information only on instructions from the Recipient and strictly in accordance with this Agreement / Addendum, and in particular the Sub-Recipient or sub-Operator Agreement, where applicable.
- 4.1.13 promptly and without undue delay notify the Company if any Personal Information is lost or destroyed or becomes damaged, corrupted, or unusable. The Recipient will restore such Personal Information at its own expense.
- 4.1.14 without undue delay notify the Company if it becomes aware of any reason to believe that there was an occurrence of any accidental, unauthorised or unlawful processing of the Personal Information; or any Personal Information Breach and in such case without undue delay, also provide the Company with the following information:

- (a) description of the nature of any accidental, unauthorised or unlawful processing of the Personal Information; or
- (b) any Personal Information Breach (including the categories and approximate number of both Data Subjects and Personal Information records concerned the likely consequences; and
- (c) description of the measures taken, or proposed to be taken to address any accidental, unauthorised or unlawful processing of the Personal Information; or
- (d) any Personal Information Breach including measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.

4.1.15 immediately, following any unauthorised or unlawful Personal Information processing or Personal Information Breach, ensure that it co-ordinates and co-operates with the Company's handling of the matter, including:

- (a) assisting with any investigation;
- (b) providing the Company with physical access to any facilities and operations affected;
- (b) facilitating interviews with the Recipient's employees, former employees and others involved in the matter;
- (d) making available all relevant records, logs, files, data reporting and other materials required to comply with all Data Protection Legislation or as otherwise reasonably required by the Company; and
- (e) taking reasonable and prompt steps to mitigate the effects and to minimise any damage resulting from the Personal Information Breach or unlawful Personal Information processing.

4.1.16 not inform any third party of any Personal Information Breach without first obtaining the Company's prior written consent, except when required to do so by law.

4.1.17 support and acknowledge that the Company has the sole right to determine:

- (a) whether to provide notice of the Personal Information Breach to any Data Subjects, supervisory authorities, regulators, law enforcement agencies or others, as required by law or regulation or in the Company's discretion, including the contents and delivery method of the notice; and
- (b) whether to offer any type of remedy to affected Data Subjects, including the nature and extent of such remedy.

4.1.18 cover all reasonable expenses associated with the performance of the obligations under clause this clause 4.1 unless the matter arose from the Company's specific instructions, negligence, wilful default or breach of this Agreement / Addendum, in which case the Company will cover all reasonable expenses.

4.1.19 also reimburse the Company for actual reasonable expenses that the Company incurs when responding to a Personal Information Breach to the extent that the Recipient caused such a Personal Information Breach, including all costs of notice and any remedy.

4.2 The Recipient warrants that it has the legal authority to give the above-mentioned warranties and fulfil the undertakings set out in this Agreement / Addendum.

4.3 The Company, in order to ascertain compliance with the warranties and undertakings recorded under this Agreement / Addendum, will have the right, on reasonable notice and during regular business hours, to view and/or audit, either by itself or through an independent agent, the Recipient's facilities, files, and any other data processing documentation needed for the required review, audit and/or independent or impartial inspection. The Recipient undertakes to provide all necessary assistance that may be required to give effect to this requirement.

5. LIABILITY OF THE RECIPIENT AND THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS

5.1 In the event of the Recipient, the sub-Recipient / sub-Operator or their respective employees or agents breaching any of the warranties and undertakings housed under this Agreement / Addendum or the sub-Recipient / sub-Operator Agreement where applicable, or failing to comply with any of the provisions of POPIA and/or the 8 POPIA Personal Information conditions, then in such an event, the Recipient shall be liable for all and any damages it or the sub-Recipient may have caused in consequence of said breach or non-compliance, including patrimonial, non-patrimonial and punitive damages suffered by the Company and/or the Data Subject(s) and the Recipient indemnifies and holds the Company including its directors, employees and all and any affected Data Subjects harmless against any such loss, damage, action or claim which may be brought by whomsoever against the Company or any of its directors, employees, or Data Subjects, or against any of the Company's affiliated companies, or their directors or employees, and agrees to pay all and any such amounts on demand.

6. APPLICABLE LAW

The laws of South Africa shall apply to this Agreement / Addendum, regardless of where the Personal Information is, will be, or was actually processed.

7. TERMINATION

7.1 In the event of:

7.1.1. any other agreements, as between the Parties and to which this Agreement / Addendum applies, being terminated for any reason;

7.1.2. the transfer of Personal Information to the Recipient being temporarily suspended by the Company for any reason;

7.1.3. the Recipient being in breach of its obligations under the Agreement or the Addendum, or has failed to comply with POPIA or the Information Processing Principles, and has failed when called upon to do so by the Company to rectify the breach or area of non-compliance;

- 7.1.4. the Recipient is in substantial or persistent breach of any warranties or undertakings given by it under the Agreement or the Addendum, notwithstanding that the Company has not given the Recipient notice of such breach;
- 7.1.5. the sub-Recipient / sub-Operator is in breach of the sub-Recipient / sub-Operator Agreement;
- 7.1.6. an application is filed for the placing of the Recipient under business rescue, under administration, or winding up whether interim or final, which application is not dismissed within the applicable period for such dismissal under applicable law; or any equivalent event in any jurisdiction occurs, then the Company, without prejudice to any other rights that it may have against the Recipient, shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, as well as where applicable, the sub-Recipient Agreement.

- 7.2 The Parties agree that the termination of the Agreement or the Addendum, and/or the sub-Recipient Agreement, where applicable, at any time and for any reason, does not exempt them from the rights and obligations set out under the Agreement or the Addendum, with regards to the processing of the Personal Information.
- 7.3 In the event of the Agreement or the Addendum, being terminated whenever, and for whatsoever reason, the Recipient undertakes to:
 - 7.3.1 restore and/or transfer back to the Company all and any Personal Information which has been provided to the Recipient for processing, including that held by the sub-Recipient, whether same has been processed or not, and/or which has been processed, together with any related documentation and/or information. All aforementioned documentation must, without exception, be returned to the Company within a period of 30 (thirty) days from date of service of the termination notice.
 - 7.3.2 to confirm in writing simultaneously when the transfer under clause 7.3.1 takes place, that all such Personal Information will be kept confidential as per the provisions of clause 4.1 and that it will not under any circumstances use the aforementioned information for any reason .
- 7.4 Notwithstanding termination of the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, and for whatsoever reason, the clauses 4, 5, 6 and 7.2 will survive any such termination.

8. GENERAL

- 8.1 The parties may not modify the provisions of the Agreement / Addendum, including any annexures, unless such variation is reduced to writing and signed by the Parties.
- 8.2 In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of the Agreement / Addendum and the other agreements that may be in place to which this Agreement / Addendum is being read with, then the terms and conditions in so far as the processing of the Personal Information is concerned, as set out under the Agreement / Addendum will take precedence and govern its interpretation, application and construction.

- 8.3 All notices to be provided in terms of the Agreement / Addendum, must be sent to the respective Company's Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer by email at their details recorded on our website.

TECHNICAL AND ORGANISATIONAL MEASURES FOR DATA PROCESSING TO BE IMPLEMENTED BY THE RECIPIENT

1. Physical Access Control

Safeguarding admission and access to processing systems against unauthorised parties.

The following technical and organisational measures have been implemented by the Recipient for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- Alarm system
- Automatic access control system
- Locking system with code lock
- Biometric access barriers
- Light barriers/motion sensors
- Manual locking system including key regulation
- Visitor logging
- Chip cards/transponder locking systems
- Video monitoring of access doors
- Safety locks
- Personnel screening by gatekeeper/reception
- Careful selection of cleaning and security staff

2. Data Access Control / User Control

Prevention of third parties using automatic processing systems with equipment for data transmission.

The following technical and organisational measures have been implemented by the Recipient for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- Authentication with username/password (per valid password regulations)
- Usage of intrusion detection systems
- Usage of anti-virus software
- Usage of a software firewall
- Creation of user profiles
- Assignment of user profiles to IT systems

- Usage of VPN technology
- Encryption of mobile data storage media
- Encryption of data storage media in laptops
- Usage of central smartphone administration software (e.g. for the external erasure of data)

3. Data Usage Control / Data Storage Media Control / Memory Control

Ensuring that the parties authorised to use an automated processing system only have access to the Personal Information appropriate for their access authorisation.

Prevention of unauthorised reading, copying, changing or erasure of data storage media (data storage media control).

Prevention of unauthorised entry of Personal Information and unauthorised access to it, changing and deleting saved Personal Information (memory control).

The following technical and organisational measures have been implemented by the Recipient for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- Roles and authorisations based on a “need to know principle”
- Number of administrators reduced to only the “essentials”
- Logging of access to applications, in particular the entry, change and erasure of data
- Physical erasure of data storage media before reuse
- Use of shredders or service providers
- Administration of rights by defined system administrators
- Password guidelines, including password length and changing passwords
- Secure storage of data storage media
- Proper destruction of data storage media
- Logging of destruction

4. Transfer Control/Transportation Control

Ensuring that the confidentiality and integrity of data is protected during the transfer of Personal Information and the transportation of data storage media (e.g. through powerful encryption of data transmissions, closed envelopes used in mailings, encrypted saving on data storage media).

The following technical and organisational measures have been implemented by the Recipient for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- Establishment of dedicated lines or VPN tunnels

- Encrypted data transmission on the Internet (such as HTTPS, SFTP, etc.)
- E-mail encryption
- Documentation of the recipients of data and time frames of planned transmission or agreed erasure deadlines
- In case of physical transportation: careful selection of transportation personnel and vehicles
- Transmission of data in an anonymised or pseudonymised form
- In case of physical transportation: secure containers/packaging

5. Entry Control / Transmission Control

Ensuring that it is possible to subsequently review and establish which Personal Information has been entered or changed at what time and by whom in automated processing systems, for instance through logging (entry control).

Depending on the system, ensuring that it is possible to review and determine to which offices or locations Personal Information has been transmitted or provided using equipment for data transmission, or to which offices or locations it could be transmitted (transmission control).

The following technical and organisational measures have been implemented by the Recipient for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- Logging of the entry, change and erasure of data
- Traceability of the entry, change and erasure of data through unique usernames (not user groups)
- Assignment of rights for the entry, change and erasure of data based on an authorisation concept
- Creating an overview showing which data can be entered, changed and deleted with which applications
- Maintaining forms from which data is taken over in automated processing

6. Availability Control / Restoration / Reliability / Data Integrity

Ensuring that systems used can be restored in case of a disruption (restorability).

Ensuring that all system functions are available and that any malfunctions are reported (reliability).

Ensuring that saved Personal Information cannot be damaged through system malfunctions (data integrity).

Ensuring that Personal Information is protected from accidental destruction or loss (availability control).

The following technical and organisational measures have been implemented by the Recipient for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- Uninterruptible Power Supply (UPS)
- Devices for monitoring temperature and moisture in server rooms
- Fire and smoke detector systems
- Alarms for unauthorised access to server rooms
- Tests of data restorability
- Storing data back-ups in a separate and secure location
- In flood areas the server is located above the possible flood level
- Air conditioning units in server rooms
- Protected outlet strips in server rooms
- Fire extinguishers in server rooms
- Creating a back-up and recovery concept
- Creating an emergency plan

7. Separation Control / Separability

Ensuring that data processed for different purposes can be processed separately.

The following technical and organisational measures have been implemented by the Recipient for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- Physically separated storing on separate systems or data storage media
- Including purpose attributions/data fields in data sets
- Establishing database rights
- Logical client separation
- For pseudonymised data: separation of mapping file and storage on a separate and secured IT system
- Separation of production and testing systems

8. List of Sub-Recipients

If Sub-recipients are hired (for instance for hosting, providing computing center space, operating software used to process Personal Information, etc.) for the processing of Personal Information, the implementation of technical and organisational measures by the respective Sub-Recipient must be regulated through appropriate agreements.

The following Sub-Recipients have been contracted:

- Name of Sub-Recipient: _____
- Name of Sub-Recipient: _____
- Name of Sub-Recipient: _____
- Name of Sub-Recipient: _____

* Sub-Recipient Agreements to be attached.
